

Cheap Inspiration

For most of us the travel budget has been cut to a mere memory.

So I thought...why not bring my favourite design destinations to me? With a few bottles of wine from Marquis Wine Cellars and an accoutrement from Atkinsons-- this summer promises to stay inspired!

Of course Italy is always a favourite stop. So an affordable Santa Margherita Pinot Grigio and an Alessi corkscrew pair perfectly for a picnic stop at Lighthouse Park.

A Bodegas Cerrasaol Verdejo will stylishly swirl in a stunning wine glass from Baccarat, inspired by Spain's Maledetta Mountains. Why not enjoy a little tapas and a Barcelona memory at home in the backyard.

Doctor L'Riesling inspires an imaginary garden lunch in Berlin with stunning cutlery from Germany's famous Robbe & Berking.

The jet lag isn't too bad... the hangover, ouch!
