

Iconic Investments

Buy it once and get it right. Especially when times are tough. Making smart purchases for your home or the office might cost a bit more up front, but the savings over the long term are immeasurable. The bottom line... people simply don't tire of good design.

The Nagouchi table is just as relevant today as it was when sculptor Isamu Noguchi designed it in 1948.

The Barcelona chair is another design that stands the test of time. Created by Ludwig Mies van der Rohe for the German Pavilion at the 1929 Barcelona Exposition this chair is just as comfortable and current 80 years later.

Alvar Aalto's vase designed in 1937 for the Paris World Fair has a urethral quality that captures timeless appeal without smashing your budget.
